

Vaccine Brand Name

Vaccine Type

- Live attenuated vaccines
- Non-live vaccines
 - Inactivated vaccines
 - Subunit vaccines (toxoid, recombinant, polysaccharide, conjugate)
 - Nucleic acid vaccines (mRNA and viral vector)

Disease

Abbreviation

Product monograph
recommended age

Drug identification number

SUPPLIED:

May be supplied with or without needles for reconstitution and administration.

PREPARATION:

ADMINISTRATION:

Health Canada approved route of administration

APPROPRIATE USE:

- Vaccine eligibility through Saskatchewan Public Health per:
 - Saskatchewan Immunization Manual
 - Vaccine Eligibility for SK Adults
- QR code and link included for further considerations and recommendations such as:
 - at risk populations
 - use in special populations
 - efficacy and safety
 - contraindications, etc.
- Off-label age considerations may be included

BEYOND-USE EXPIRY DATE/TIME:[^]

- Health Canada approved storage conditions
- [^]Product monograph contains excursion data

HANDLING:

APPEARANCE:

- Description of vaccine appearance immediately prior to administration

DOSE:

SERIES/SCHEDULE:

- Dosing schedules for individuals with certain medical risk factors/no increased risk of exposure to disease may not be included. See PM/SIM/CIG for more information.
- Routine dosing schedules for infants and children under 5 years of age not included (pharmacists with advanced method certification can only immunize those 5 years and older).
- 1st dose = 0

REFERENCES:

- Links to sources for more information

Financial contribution:

DATE LAST UPDATED

©2024 medSask // Townes & Park Designs

VACCINE CARD ABBREVIATIONS

ACIP — Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices
CIG — Canadian Immunization Guide
DIN — drug identification number

IM — intramuscular
NACI — National Advisory Committee on Immunization
PM — product monograph

SIM — Saskatchewan Immunization Manual
SK — Saskatchewan
SUBQ — subcutaneous